On the Side . . Surprises and Prizes Galore Are Planned for 1950 Reunion

• Clarke Clubs

A chain is as strong as its weakest link . . . and a national alumnae association, we might say, is as strong as its weakest local club.

That's why we are so interested in forming and maintaining Clarke clubs. We believe that it is the best, and probably the only, way to build a greater Alumnae Association.

It's fun, too. It is wonderful to maintain your contacts with former classmates. And the clubs keep you ever closer to your Alma Mater.

The object of the local clubs, according to the constitutions and by-laws is "to foster loyalty to Clarke college; to keep alive the memories and friendships of school days; to promote Catholic education; to further at all times the interests of Clarke college and of the Sisters of Charity, B.V.M.

If you do not belong to a club now, make a mid-year resolution to join one and to be an active member. If there is no club in your town start one. It takes only six or seven Clarke girls to form a club. The effort will be well worth the trouble.

• Lost Alumnae!

Now that we've caught up with ourselves in this age of speed and have purchased an addressograph, we're eager to perfect our mailing list and to locate alumnae who have been lost in our files.

In a few weeks we will send you a list of the alumnae whose addresses we do not have. We are asking you to check this list and send us any information you can about those you know.

We want to contact every Clarke alumna and we shall need your help to accomplish this end.

• Do You Know

. . . that a Mass is offered in the Chapel of the Sacred Heart at Clarke every first Friday of the Month for ACTIVE alumnae?

. . . that ACTIVE alumnae, those who share in the benefits of these Masses, are alumnae who are in good standing with the treasurer?

. . . that alumnae dues of $2.00 are payable at the beginning of each year?

. . . that a life membership in the association can be had for $100?

. . . that your dues can be sent to the treasurer, Dorothy K. Stark, 1312 First Ave., N.W., Cedar Rapids, Iowa?

Receive Graduates Into Association; Honor at Banquet

Graduates of 1950 will pledge their loyalty and support to the Clarke alumnae association when they are officially received into the association tomorrow afternoon at 4:30. The simple but impressive reception ceremony will take place in the drawing room of Administration hall with Mary Meyer Imhoff, national president, presiding.

Immediately after the ceremony the executive board members will be hostesses at a dinner party honoring the graduates at the Bunker Hill Golf club.

Among the graduates to be received into the alumnae association are Dorothy Watson, Milwaukee, daughter of Gladys Willinger Watson, and Joan Michaels, Washington, D. C., daughter of Ellen Tarrant Michaels.

Mrs. Imhoff addressed the senior class last Wednesday morning, impressing upon the graduates the importance of the alumnae association in their lives. She urged them to become affiliated at once with a local club and to be an active member of it.

Mundelein College Presents Award To Clarke Alumna

Mary Blake Finan, one of Clarke's most distinguished alumnae, was honored by Mundelein College, Chicago, in November when she was named the third recipient of the Magnificat Medal, conferred annually on a Catholic college graduate of distinguished achievement.

The award was given to Mrs. Finan as a tribute to her for 32 years of self-sacrificing work among Chicago's poor and underprivileged. His excellency, the Most Rev. Samuel Cardinal Stritch, archbishop of Chicago, in presenting the medal to Mrs. Finan, said of her: "She translated the commandments and moral obligations into everyday language. She didn't believe that there has to be a certain number of criminals in every community. She tried to remove the occasions of sin. She was not a reformer, but a restorer of right."

Sister Mary Anne Leone, B.V.M., president, and Sister Mary Crescentia, B.V.M., dean, represented the faculty at the ceremony. Mary Meyer Imhoff, president of the national Clarke alumnae association, was in the receiving line at the formal reception honoring Mrs. Finan.

Alumnae President Will Attend Boulder Meeting

Mary Meyer Imhoff, alumnae president, will attend the biennial convention of the National Federation of B.V.M. Alumni at Boulder, Colo., June 15-18.

Sister Mary Anne Leone, B.V.M., and Sister Mary Matilde, B.V.M., will represent the faculty at the meeting. Mary Lonergan Rhomberg, past president of the Clarke alumnae association and a national officer of the federation, will also attend.

One of the highlights of the three-day program will be a panel discussion on "The Challenge of the Mid-Century. Various speakers will cover such topics as "The Christian Family," "Lay Leadership," and "Why a B. V. M. Federation."

Scheduled to address the group are the Rev. Paul Reinert, S.J., president of St. Louis University; Mother Augustina, O.S.B., mitered abbess of St. Walburga's convent, Eichstadt, Bavaria; and the Very Rev. Leonard Schwinn, O.S.B., abbot of Holy Cross monastery, Canon City, Colo.

Wichita Senior Wins Scholarship To Clarke College

Sue Quinn, senior at Mount Carmel academy, Wichita, Kans., is the winner of the 1950 Federation scholarship to Clarke. The scholarship, established by the B.V.M. Federation Alumni, provides for tuition, room and board, and general expenses for one year.

Mount Carmel academy also claimed the second place winner in the scholarship competition. Kathleen Shea will receive an honor tuition scholarship to Clarke. An honor tuition scholarship has also been offered to Therese Shinners, Holy Angels academy, Milwaukee, who placed third.

Other students who ranked in the top ten are Sonya Goering, Immaculate Conception academy, Davenport; Marie Petrone, Mundelein Cathedral high school, Chicago; Teresa Blaes, Mount Carmel academy, Wichita; Isabel Knaebel, Holy Angels academy, Milwaukee; Janelle Guerrette, St. Joseph academy, Dubuque; Betty Ann Smith, Immaculate Conception academy, Davenport; and Mary Herald, Holy Angels academy, Milwaukee.

Seventy-two seniors from 15 of the high schools conducted by the Sisters of Charity, B.V.M., competed for the Federation scholarship which is awarded on the results of a test based on scholastic achievement.

Alumnae News Round-up

Sister Mary St. Ruth (Connolly), school in Waterloo, has been named vice-president of Delta Mu Theta, newly established national Catholic Music Honor society for college students.

Anna Mae Jobgen completed her studies for a master of music degree at the Chicago Musical college this month and was presented in a voice recital May 2.

Geraldine Schmid Schrup is the new president of the senior board of the Visiting Nurse association of Dubuque.

A course in audiology at Northwestern university is Margaret O'Gara's newest interest.

Katherine Reiter Festle's son, a Jesuit scholastic, has been named for four years' advanced study at Oxford university.

European Travelers

Two months of recent European travel gave Margaret Delaney an opportunity to meet and tour with classmate Viola Schmid, who is in government employ at The Hague, Netherlands.

Among the visitors to Rome this year will be alumnae Eileen Clifford Blaine, Elizabeth Hansman, Margaret Gretzman, Mary O'Grady, Therese Lynch, Nancy Calkins and Anne Muller. Bette Mead Lanfranchi and her husband enjoyed two months of travel in southern Europe recently.

Carmelita Gilroy is planning a trip to Hawaii to visit her sister.

Designing and building their own home in Hales Corners, Wis., proved such an interesting task for Verena Cahill Flaherty and her husband that they have decided to go into the business of designing and building. They both make sketches, do the final drawings and make the blue prints.

Rita Holmberg is in charge of the home economics department at Clarke during Sister Mary St. Clara's leave of absence this semester.

Speaks at Clarke

Sister Mary Madelena (Thornton), B.V.M., head of the journalism department at Mundelein college, Chicago, recently addressed Clarke students on public relations.

Two other alumnae have been guest speakers at Clarke. Dr. Mary McCormick and Alice Lamb spoke to sociology students.

Marian Petrakis' recent letter described her interesting sea voyage from Seattle to Tokyo. Marian is now an instructor at Narimasu high school in Tokyo. Rosemary Trebon, also in Japan, is engaged in recreational work.

Betty Lou Winks Chase is president of the newly organized study club in St. Patrick's parish in Silverton, Colo.

Alumnae Professed

Three alumnae were professed and three received in ceremonies at Mount Carmel March 19. Newly professed are Sister Mary Helene, the former Mary Helen Ward who has been assigned to Sacred Heart high school, Marcus; Sister Mary Francis Hugh, the former Louise McMurchy, who was sent to Stockton, Calif., and Sister Mary Louis Clare, Bettie Claire Tobin, who is at Our Lady of Victory high

The new novices are Joan Delaney, now Sister Mary Consolata; Kathleen O'Connor, Sister Mary Catherine Francis, and Helen Pollard, Sister Mary Kilian.

Mary Jean Grupp, R.N., received the name of Sister Mary Martin at reception ceremonies at the Mercy novitiate in Detroit, Mich.

Joins Honor Society

Anne Clewell has been admitted to membership in Omicron Nu, national honorary Home Economics sorority.

From the U. S. Geological Survey Laboratory in Colorado, Mary Theisen writes of experiments which she has been making with radioactive materials.

Patricia Morrison, Rosemary Wiltgen, and Patricia Williams who received scholarships awarded by the Infantile Paralysis Foundation center in New York, are completing their studies in Physical therapy at Northwestern university.

Maxine Nella has a new position in the special diet kitchen at the University of Nebraska hospital.

"My recent visit to Clarke was truly an inspiration," wrote Quittine Hudachek Davis, Kansas City, Kansas, who, with her lively little son and daughter, was an autumn visitor.

Manuscript Editor

Mary Thomas Gustafson, Chicago, is manuscript editor for the American Medical association. Kathryn Meskel Wilson writes that Mary McDonough is enjoying her new work with the state department in Washington, D. C.

Betty Phelan is back in the capitol city, working for Senator Hunt.

Cecilia O'Donnell has transferred from Denver to Kansas City, where she has a position with the weather bureau.

Mary Kascht has had a promotion at the Peter Bent Brigham hospital in Brookline, Mass. "I am now the chief research dietitian, and I have an assistant as well as a student."

Phyllis Tschudi has been an enthusiastic worker with the camp fire girls in Des Moines for the past four years.

Send Those Snaps!

Don't Hide Your Children

You probably won't be able to bring Junior or little Susie with you when you come to reunion—but be sure their pictures are here.

There will be special bulletin boards featuring the children (or grandchildren) of alumnae. This is your chance to show off your beautiful children. Send any kind of pictures, preferably snaps to the Alumnae Office at Clarke. Be sure to identify them so we'll know who's who. As a special incentive, one picture will be drawn by lot at reunion and that child will be sent a prize.

TWIN CITIES

St. Paul and Minneapolis alumnae met for their annual Communion breakfast Feb. 19 at St. Olaf's church. Breakfast followed at the Normandy kitchen.

Highlight of the year's activities was the October meeting at which Sister Mary Joseph Therese and Sister Mary Crescentia were guests. Sister Mary Crescentia spoke to the group about her travels abroad last summer. Sister had previously addressed the Women's Club of the Church of the Incarnation as the request of Anne Hammes Gilbert.

DES MOINES

Newest club on the alumnae roster is the Des Moines club which was recently organized by Melera Flegg Kellogg and Laura Schmitt Pilmaier. The initial meeting was held April 27, at Mrs. Kellogg's home. Fifteen alumnae were present. According to Mrs. Kellogg, "they're off to a good start."

WATERLOO

Youngest potential club is the Waterloo club which is "in the making," according to Mary Louise Lutgen Lichty and Virginia Robert.

BUTTE

Six of the Butte alumnae have met for dinner every month during the past year. The group includes Frances McCarthy Callow, Rita McGrath, Rosemary Gannon, Nellie Crowley, Delia and Deborah Gibbons.

DUBUQUE

Recently checked off the calendar for the Dubuque Clarke club was a luncheon at Bunker Hill Country club April 22. Chairman Margaret Dennerhue Koob was assisted by Mary Loneragan Rhomberg, Rita Mae Rhomberg, Entringer, Aileen Quinlan O'Connor, Jane Birkett McNamara and Ruth Meyer Jackson. The luncheon was followed by a business meeting and a card party and style show was sponsored by the club Feb. 2. Seventeen Clarke students modeled spring styles from Roshek's department store.

Like Mother

to Loras tomorrow will be Aljeanne Hackett who will reign as queen over the annual Loras track meet.

Comes The End Of May . . .

and Clarkites are kept in a dither trying to cram the Prom, fare-well banquets (incidentally, last week the seniors attended four in six days), Parents' Day, registration, College Day, programs, final exams, baccalaureate and graduation, into 14 short days—and still leave time here and there for such incidentals as study and sleep. "If only there were two of me!" is practically a byword. Take heart, girls—according to Sister Mary Francine, this personality-splitting may become a reality any time now. Sister predicts that all these programs we've been practicing for are bound to give us "skit-zophrenia."

Speaking Of Being Driven To Distraction . . .

those brave souls who accepted Therese Fox's invitation to go for a ride in the family car during Parents' weekend will probably be allergic to horseless carriages for some time to come. It seems that Therese has a blithe disregard of the usual driving procedure—or else she is laboring under the delusion that the Fox limousine is part jet-plane. At any rate, her philosophy is "When in doubt, step on the gas," and those Clarkites who flew over Dubuque fences with her swore* that Therese really practices what she preaches. And after being thrown against the windshield a few times by a sudden Fox-y stop, her passengers suggested another motto for her: "Never give an auto an even brake!" *No, Phyllis Frazier, this word does not complete the sentence—your secret is safe.

Was It A Bid For Attention . . .

the girls wondered, when Mary Helen Oktanski announced at the general assembly: "We are collecting playing cards to be used at the card games Saturday night. If you have any decks to donate, please mark them plainly and turn them over to me." The girls didn't have the heart to indicate their suspicions to Mary Helen, so they gave her a good hand for her finesse. They decided they might as well let the whole deal pass, especially since "Mho" is such a joker anyway.

Diamonds Are Trump . . .

with two more Clarkites who joined the engagement circle last week-end. Prom queen attendant Jeanne Doll received her ring at the dance, and she will leave her post as SLC vice-president to take over as general manager of Gene O'Connell. Junior Ann Pinski's new fiancé is Danny Dolan.

One Of The Most Prominent Features . . .

at the Prom last Friday were those belonging to Barb Abernethy, who was watching the dancing from the balcony. Equipped with a sunburn almost as lobster-colored as Margie Rooney's, Barb's face, cautiously peeking out of the blue curtain excited the admiration of the male prom-goers, who innocently thought she was part of the "Abstraction of Spring" decoration scheme.

The Registrar Registered . . .

surprise when she was plotting out the scholastic future of one of the sophomores during registration. The girl had asked, with a burnt-dog-dreads-the-fire look, "Sister, are you going to offer that curse in Current History next year?" Since Sister Mary Crescentia teaches that class, that bitter sophomore shall remain anonymous, lest she get on the "Dean's (black) List."

Not Included In The Regular Program . . .

of activities for Parents' Day was Tete Aid's special tour of the biology department, to view what violin and tennis strings are originally. Tete dragged out her very formaldehyde-dead cat which she has been dissecting for the past month and displayed it for inspection of sundry admiring—well, startled, anyway—visitors, including Jean Stenson's parents. They were reported as being grateful that their daughter's major, Spanish, is the kind that doesn't require special respiratory equipment for approaching the subject.

But I Don't Even Have . . .

my passport yet!" complained Rose Nederhiser when Kathleen Dumser announced at general assembly: "All those who are going to Europe please meet in front of the residence hall at 3 o'clock." By the time the excited jabbering subsided enough for Kathleen to blush and add, "to get their picture taken," Rose had lapsed into a state of semi-coma at the thought of the rushing around she would have to do to get everything ready. By the way, athletic enthusiasts will be interested in Rose's methods of exercise. She seriously declared to a friend one night, "You know, I really get lots of exercise—I'm all the time walking out of my room."

3 Seniors Receive Trophies At WAA Award Convocation

Three seniors were presented with bronze trophies at the second annual WAA award convocation this morning in the assembly hall. Awards were presented by Sister Mary Ann Pauline, B. V. M., adviser of the organization; Mrs. Wilbur Dalzell, physical education instructor, and Miss Rosalyn Muehl, swimming instructor.

Trophy winners were Virginia Wiltgen, Tam Mackin, and Rita Johann.

Junior awards were presented to Beth Aschenbrener, Virginia Wiltgen, Leona Ryan, Pat Burke, Betty Campbell, Joan Berghoff, Joan McDermott and Nancy Dunham.

Twelve sophomores received the "C" letter. They were Joan Berghoff, Joann Burke, Mary Bautsch, Jane Gretzman, Bonnie Haberer, Kathy Leonard, Janaan Noonan, Joan Schuster Dolores Stayer, Rosemarie Van Dyck, Mary Weller and Jane Walsh. Ann Dunbar and Be Good merited the WAA emblem.

Volleyball pins were awarded to Mary Jean Rhomberg, Mary Anthony Rhomberg, Rosalie Sullivan, Kay Hoffman, Anna Mae McElroy, Ann Dunbar, Nancy Dunham, Be Good, Mary Waters, Kay McNamara, Coleen McGinty and Mary Ann McGovern.

Basketball pins were merited by Jane Walsh, Helen Joslin, Rosemarie Van Dyck, Joann Burke, Janaan Noonan, Jane Gretzman, Bonnie Haberer, Mary Bautsch, Helen Condon, Dolores Stayer, Joan Schuster and Kathy Leonard.

Golf awards were presented to Margaret Cassidy and Jane Gretzman and badminton awards were given to Jane Walsh and Mary Jean Rhomberg.

Swimmers who merited awards were Joan Berghoff, Janet Blomgren, Jean Fife, Joan McDermott, Kathy Leonard, Nancy Dunham, Camille Jacques, Leona Ryan, Barbara Hutchinson, Kathleen Dumser, Virginia Wiltgen, Jane Colnon and Mary Beth Mauer.

High awards for swimming were presented to Beth Aschenbrener, Virginia Wiltgen, Leona Ryan, Pat Burke, Betty Campbell, Joan Berghoff, Joan McDermott and Nancy Dunham.
